RAIN PREVENTS GAMES.

"Fans" in Many Cities Disappointed Because of Bad Weather.
New York, April 18.—Heavy rains and water-soaked grounds made it impossible to play any of the baseball games scheduled in the East to-day in either the National or the American League. If weather permits these games will be played off to-morrow, but the official prediction is more rain for another twenty-four hours.

The unfavorable weather disappointed thousands. In New York the National season was to have opened with two games, one at the Polo Grounds, in Manhattan, between the Boston and the New Yorks, and one in Brooklyn, with the Philadelphia. The Boston were scheduled to play at the Polo Grounds, but the Philadelphia did not even come to town.

In Boston, where the American League was to have opened, with the Boston playing against Washington, there was another disappointment, and at St. Louis, where the Philadelphia were to have opened with the New Yorks, it was no better.

FOURTEEN ERRORS IN GAME.

Randolph-Macon Academy Loses to College by Score of 9 to 4.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Ashland, Va., April 18.—With both regular pitchers out of commission, Randolph-Macon Academy defeated the Randolph-Macon Academy team, from Front Royal, by a score of 9 to 4. Each team made seven errors, and yet the game abounded in pretty plays and some difficult executions. In the fourth inning, the Academy's star third baseman, made a double play unassisted, and Pritchard did the same stunt in the fifth. Smith, of Richmond, the Academy's center fielder, made a beautiful catch of a long drive into his territory. Haynie, the college pitcher, did well in the box.

R. M. A. 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 3 8 7

Each of the leading clubs had lost one and won ten matches.

The Miles Standish Rifle Club, of Portland, Maine, was third, the Warren, Pennsylvania, Rifle and Revolver Club, was fourth; the St. Paul Rifle and Pistol Association was fifth, Seattle Rifle and Revolver Association sixth, and the Fort Pitt Rifle Club, of Pittsburgh, seventh.

Other clubs in the league were Birmingham Rifle-Club Athletic Association, of New York; Los Angeles Rifle and Revolver Club, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Tacoma Rifle and Revolver Club, of Tacoma, Wash., and the Triangle Cadets Rifle Club, of Los Angeles, Cal.

QUINTON IS DEFEATED.

Roxbury Wins Opening Game by Score of 5 to 3.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Roxbury, Va., April 18.—The first match game of ball between the Roxbury team and the Quinton team Saturday afternoon was a very exciting one. The Quinton players went down in defeat by a score of 5 to 3. The pitching of W. P. Tunstall was the feature of the game. The Watkins brothers deserve special mention, for they proved themselves great fielders, accepting many difficult chances.

HARVARD SQUAD BEGINS PRACTICE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Charlottesville, Va., April 18.—The Harvard baseball squad, which reached Charlottesville last night, engaged in morning and afternoon practice on the grounds here today, despite the wet grounds. Every indication points to the most successful Southern trip that the Harvard team has ever enjoyed.

Games will be played with Virginia Wednesday and Thursday, and if the practice goes right in the early part of the week the team will be given a vacation on Friday in order to visit Washington. The final game of the trip will be with Georgetown Saturday. Eighteen players compose the squad, which is in charge of Coach Pieper. Captain Lannigan and Truitt are James Fallon, Dana, left field on last year's team; Nobuyasu, a Japanese student, and R. J. Currier, the inspiring leader of last year's team, will probably come over from Washington to spend part of the week with the squad.

The Crimson squad expects to take two of the three games scheduled in the South. The Crimson athletes did not repeat last year's call at the White House, leaving some bad results from the Yale influence prevalent there.

RELAY TEAM TO ENTER PHILADELPHIA RACES

Virginia Pitted Against Leading Northern Colleges--To Strictly Enforce Rules of Discipline--Neff to Coach South Carolina University.

Charlottesville, Va., April 18.—It is with much satisfaction that the student body learns of the decision of the G. A. A. to send a relay team to the big intercollegiate relay races, which take place in Philadelphia on April 20. By sending this team Virginia will be able to hold the privilege of being a member of the Intercollegiate Association, which was last year obtained with much difficulty, and only through the wonderful reputation of the Virginia track team of 1909.

The colleges which enter these relay races include all of the leading institutions of the North and West. The teams are divided into Harvard, Cornell, Yale, Princeton, Columbia, Chicago, Wisconsin, Michigan, and one or two others. Virginia is at the head of the parade, and it is this that the Virginia team will do.

Trainer Lannigan thinks the teams with which Virginia will have to fight here are Harvard, Cornell, Chicago and Michigan. The relay is for one mile, the distance at which Virginia was beaten last year by the Harvard team. The latter by its superiority at Boston, so that her comparative strength with Virginia may be judged, taking into account the accident of Douglas being eliminated, and further that no liberties will be allowed the team to scatter when on a trip. It will be expected to act as a body at all times.

The track men reported for work several days ago, and will be in fine fettle by the day of the relay. Candidates for the team are: Stantley, Whitely, Douglas, Todd, Goetz, Caldwell, Williams, Greer and others. The first three will be the main body of the team, and will be expected to show in the Penn. meet. The team was not yet been announced. The team will at least average between fifty-one and fifty-two seconds for the quarter, which is excellent time for the quarter, this year, with the poorest prospects, have done enough to win the confidence of the college, and the relay team which goes to Philadelphia on the 20th will be backed by supporters who are expecting some sensational work.

Rules of Discipline.
At a meeting of captains of teams, ex-presidents of classes and others interested in athletics, the question of more strictly enforcing the rules of discipline was brought up. It has been observed during the last five or six years that the teams generally, and especially those away from home, have become somewhat loose in adhering strictly to the spirit of the pledge.

With a view to reasserting the absolute letter with the law and impressing upon athletes their obligation to regard it in every particular the meeting drew up a new pledge. This pledge was a definite statement about discipline, privileges and exemptions. It might be mentioned especially that the use of tobacco, and other things, will be eliminated, and further that no liberties will be allowed the team to scatter when on a trip. It will be expected to act as a body at all times.

It was also agreed to put the power of granting exemptions in the hands of Trainer Lannigan. For some time privilege has been granted more or less freely, and it is thought that best results will be gained by making Mr. Lannigan consider matters of this kind when referred to by Mr. Lannigan.

Coach South Carolina, Johnny Neff, half back on the Virginia football team for four years, will be head coach at the University of South Carolina. The announcement will be interesting to the large number of alumni and

WEST'S PITCHING FEATURE OF GAME

Trinity Wins From Wake Forest by Timely Hitting by Score of 6 to 4.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Durham, N. C., April 18.—In a game marked by timely hitting and occasional spurts of sensational playing, Trinity won to-day from Wake Forest by a score of 6 to 4. Claude West, with a somewhat crippled arm, pitched an excellent game, striking out seven men, not allowing a single base on balls, and only giving up four hits. Utley, for the visitors, was somewhat erratic, walking four men, and making it exceedingly difficult for Riddick, at the receiving end of the line.

Trinity scored three runs in the third inning. Cooper was given a free pass. Anderson bunts and is safe on a fumble by pitcher. Foushee measures up to the expectation of the crowd, and scores Cooper by a hit over second. Henderson, who went to third on Foushee's hit, is caught at the plate in an attempt to score on Harris's grounder to second. Foushee later scores on a passed ball, and is followed closely by Flowers, who tallies after "Capt." West's drive to centre for two bases.

In the sixth the bases are filled, owing to an error and a hit man. Bundy and Henderson safely connected, and three more runs are added.

Wake Forest scored two runs each in the seventh and eighth innings. Utley reaches first on a wild throw by Houston. White is hit by pitcher, while Edwards drives the ball to centre safely, but due to a magnificent throw by Harris, Utley is caught at home. Beam meets the ball fairly, and as a result White and Edwards score.

In the eighth an error, passed ball and a sacrifice fly count the third and fourth runs for the visitors.

Batteries—Wake Forest, Utley and Riddick; Trinity, Claude West and Flowers.

TURK DOWNS KING IN THREE BOUTS

Fighting Superior Weight and Strength, Achmed Takes Last Two Falls.

Before a really pitiful audience of less than 100 persons, Carre Achmed last night took two falls out of three from Frye King in the City Auditorium. The fight was as interesting as any of those of the series of bouts started by the First Regiment several months ago, and the fact that King took the first fall in a little over fifteen minutes made the fight interesting to the end.

Though King outweighed the Turk by at least thirty pounds, he had much the better of it during the first round. The Turk was on the defensive all during the round and only became aggressive when King hooked on to the broken toe which gave the bout to Joe Turner two weeks ago. King was well aware of the weakness and spent most of the time feeling for that toe.

After fifteen minutes of fast work, King secured a hammer lock on the Turk, which looked conclusive. The Turk retaliated with a smother hold, however, and King was forced to break. In the fifth after the break King secured a hammer lock on the body, which in combination with a head hold, and the extra weight, slowly took the Turk's shoulders to the mat. The fall was gotten in fifteen minutes and twenty seconds.

Turk After Blood.
When time was called for the second round the Turk went for blood from the start. King's nose was bleeding and the Turk did not let it rest. Almost every kind of hold known to the game was tried at one time or another by the Turk, but King's weight and the extra weight, slowly took the Turk's shoulders to the mat. The fall was gotten in fifteen minutes and twenty seconds.

The Turk did not let up for a second during the whole second round, and his speed took King's wind rapidly. A good deal of the extra weight that worried King in the first go worried King in the second, and with the blood stopping the Turk's wind, he was unable to keep his breath. King secured time off. Finally, Nelson-arm-scissors combined with a Turk hold, and King's head at last a minute, the big man's strength gave out and he came to the floor.

The third round didn't end in a fall, but came when King patted the mat. It was the shortest of the three and came about so unexpectedly that half the audience did not know it was a fall until it was announced.

Played for Bad Name.
King had been playing for that broken toe, that the Turk was as busy as a bee protecting, when suddenly without warning the Turk showed up with a toe hold and hammer lock that the Turk could not be broken. King fought the Turk for a full minute, but the Turk also knew about toe holds and strained the arm muscles and leg muscles until King was bowed to half his length. Realizing that the hold could not be broken, and with every muscle twisted, King gave the signal of defeat.

QUESTION NOT CONSIDERED.

Jeffries Not Worried Over Who Will Referee Big Fight.
Ben Leonard, Cal., April 18.—When James Jeffries was informed to-day that Jack Johnson had declared in favor of Jack Welch for referee of the coming fight, he said:

"I don't believe I've given the question of a referee a moment's thought so far. Any of the names suggested would be agreeable to me. The selection of the referee will be in Berger's hands. Personally, I don't care much who the referee is, so long as he is thoroughly understood the game."

Berger said that he felt very much as Jeffries did, and had no particular choice in mind. He added:

"Some time before May 4, the date for the selection of the referee, Jeffries and I will take the matter up and I will submit the names of six men, any one of whom would be agreeable to us, but at present I do not care to mention any of the five."
